INTRODUCTION 1

CHAPTER 1 The Nature and Scope of Managerial Economics 3

1-1 The Scope of Managerial Economics 4

Definition of Managerial Economics 5

Relationship to Economic Theory 6

Relationship to the Decision Sciences 6

Relationship to the Functional Areas of Business Administration Studies 7

1-2 The Basic Process of Decision Making 7

CASE STUDY 1-1 Peter Drucker—The Man Who Invented Management 9

CASE STUDY 1-2 The Management Revolution 10

1-3 The Theory of the Firm 10

Reasons for the Existence of Firms and Their Functions 11

The Objective and Value of the Firm 12

Constraints on the Operation of the Firm 13

Limitations of the Theory of the Firm 14

BOX 1 Managerial Economics at Work: The Objective and Strategy of Firms in the Cigarette Industry 15

1-4 The Nature and Function of Profits 17

Business versus Economic Profit 17

Theories of Profit 18

Function of Profit 19

CASE STUDY 1-3 Profits in the Personal Computer Industry 20

1-5 Business Ethics 21

CASE STUDY 1-4 Business Ethics at Boeing 22

CASE STUDY 1-5 Enron—Andersen and Other Financial Disasters 23

CASE STUDY 1-6 The Global Financial Crisis 24

1-6	The International Framework of Managerial Economics	25
	CASE STUDY 1-7 The Rise of the Global Corporation	26
	CASE STUDY 1-8 The Global Business Leader	27
	CASE STUDY 1-9 Global Most Admired Companies	28
1-7	Managerial Economics in a More Risky, Crisis-Prone, and Sluggish Global Economy	29
	CASE STUDY 1-10 Terrorism, Cyber Espionage, Financial Crises, and Globalization	30
1-8	Managerial Economics and the Internet	31
	CASE STUDY 1-11 The Most Important Internet Site Addresses for Managerial Economics	32

CHAPTER 2	Demand, Supply, and Equilibrium Analysis	41
2-1	Market Analysis	42
2-2	Market Demand	43
	Demand Schedule and Demand Curve	43
	Changes in Demand	44
2-3	Market Supply	45
	Supply Schedule and Supply Curve	45
	Changes in Supply	47
2-4	When Is a Market in Equilibrium?	47
2-5	Adjustment to Changes in Demand and Supply: Comparative Static Analysis	49
	CASE STUDY 2-1 Equilibrium Price by Auction	50
	Adjustment to Changes in Demand	50
	Adjustment to Changes in Supply	51
	CASE STUDY 2-2 Changes in Demand and Supply and Coffee Prices	52
2-6	Domestic Demand and Supply, Imports, and Prices	53
	CASE STUDY 2-3 Lower Consumer Prices with Imports	55

- 2-7 Interfering with versus Working through the Market 56
- CASE STUDY 2-4 Rent Control Harms the Housing Market 56
 - CASE STUDY 2-5 The Economics of U.S. Farm Support Programs 58
 - CASE STUDY 2-6 Working through the Market with an Excise Tax 59
 - BOX 2 Managerial Economics at Work: Nonclearing Financial and Other Markets 61

Summary • Discussion Questions • Problems • Spreadsheet Problems

Appendix to Chapter 2 The Algebra of Demand, Supply, and Equilibrium 65

- Market Equilibrium Algebraically 65
- Shifts in Demand and Supply, and Equilibrium 66
- The Effect of an Excise Tax 67

Appendix Problems • Supplementary Readings

CHAPTER 3 Optimization Techniques and New Management Tools 69

- 3-1 Methods of Expressing Economic Relationships 71
- 3-2 Total, Average, and Marginal Relationships 72
- Total, Average, and Marginal Cost 72
 - Geometric Derivation of the Average- and Marginal-Cost Curves 74
 - CASE STUDY 3-1 Total, Average, and Marginal Cost in the U.S. Steel Industry 75
- 3-3 Optimization Analysis 76
- Profit Maximization by the Total-Revenue and Total-Cost Approach 76
 - Optimization by Marginal Analysis 77
 - CASE STUDY 3-2 Optimal Pollution Control 78
- 3-4 Constrained Optimization 79
- CASE STUDY 3-3 Pursuing Multiple Objectives under Constraints by Global Corporations 80
- 3-5 New Management Tools for Optimization 81
- Benchmarking 81
 - Total Quality Management 81
 - CASE STUDY 3-4 Benchmarking at Xerox, Ford, and Mobil 82
 - Reengineering 83
 - CASE STUDY 3-5 Total Quality Management at Johnson & Johnson, Motorola, General Electric, and Ford 84

CASE STUDY 3-6 Reengineering at GE 85

The Learning Organization 86

CASE STUDY 3-7 Applying Learning-Organization Principles at Ford and Southwest Airlines 87

3-6 Other Management Tools for Optimization 88

3-7 New Management Tools and Functional Specialization 89

CASE STUDY 3-8 The American Business Model 90

CASE STUDY 3-9 When Governance Rules Fail, Public
Trust Is Eroded 91

BOX 3 Managerial Economics at Work: Management
Practices across the World 92

Summary • Discussion Questions • Problems • Spreadsheet Problems

Appendix 1 to Chapter 3 Optimization Using Spreadsheets 96

Appendix Problem

Appendix 2 to Chapter 3 Differential Calculus and Optimization Techniques 97

The Derivative and Rules of Differentiation 97

The Concept of the Derivative 97

Rules of Differentiation 99

Optimization with Calculus 103

Determining a Maximum or a Minimum by Calculus 103

Distinguishing between a Maximum and a Minimum: The Second
Derivative 104

Multivariate Optimization 106

Partial Derivatives 106

Maximizing a Multivariable Function 107

Constrained Optimization 108

Constrained Optimization by Substitution 108

Constrained Optimization by the Lagrangian Multiplier

Tastes, production, labor markets, financial markets, and competition have become highly globalized; financial and economic crises have become more frequent, and the risks of doing business have increased in a world economy that has become more sluggish (growing less rapidly than in past decades). Thoroughly recognizing and highlighting this new business environment, Managerial Economics in a Global Economy—while employing the theory of the firm as the unifying theme—examines how firms reach optimal managerial decisions in the face of these modern constraints.

As in past editions, the text balances concepts, application, and teachability. In clear, concise explanations and illustrations it surveys the time-tested as well as the many new and exciting topics in managerial economics (such as firm architecture, business ethics, the evolution of the creative firm, Porter’s strategic framework, electronic commerce, the economics of information, and risk management) and then illustrates how firms actually behave through 127 real-world cases, 15 Boxes (one for each chapter of the text) on Managerial Economics at Work, as well as 14 more extensive, integrative cases (3 more than in the previous edition). The tools of decision making, such as spreadsheet applications, so much in demand by students, are prominent. A flexible, modular organization makes the book suitable for both full-term and abbreviated managerial economics courses, while an extensive instructor ancillary package, including online resources, makes it the perfect choice for lecture-based, online, or hybrid managerial economics courses.

The primary aims of this text have been and remain:

- To provide a unifying theme of managerial decision making around the theory of the firm with applications in a globalized economy. This text shows how managerial economics is not the study of unrelated topics but the synthesis of economic theory, decision sciences, and the various fields of business administration studies, and it examines how they interact with one another.
- To identify and apply the basic decision-making process for optimal managerial decisions. The text spells out the five steps of the managerial decision-making process that firms ought to follow, whether firms did in fact follow these steps in specific cases, and the outcome of their application (i.e., did it lead to the best managerial decision?).
- To introduce an international dimension into managerial economics to reflect the globalization of tastes, production, distribution, and competition in our more risky and crisis-prone, sluggish global economy. This text fully integrates and discusses, in each chapter and for each topic, the international ramifications of managerial economics. Simply put, the twenty-first-century manager must be prepared to operate—and compete—within a global economy that has grown more risky, crisis-prone, and sluggish, no matter how large the firm.
- To include one “Box: Managerial Economics at Work” in each chapter of the text that can be used for class discussion and analysis. The aim here is to try to simulate the
